“ TESTIMONIALS

I had the opportunity to work with Sly for a speaking engagement for the Women's ERG at my company. He was terrific to work with and, right from the start, was professional and well-prepared. I met with him to arrange a session titled Unleashing Your Inner Trailblazer, which was received very well by a large audience of associates. I'd recommend Sly if you are looking for someone engaging who shares positive ideas for advancing in the technology field or if you are looking to discuss male allyship for women.
